

11 years in the business, Pasha Patriki's expansive body of work includes over a dozen of dramatic feature films and numerous feature documentaries. He's also framed up more than 50 shorts and countless music videos and commercial spots. Films composed in Pasha's lens have screened internationally and won awards in the United States and Canada. His most recent "Best Cinematography" awards come from the NY Independent Short Film Festival, the Wildsound Film Festival, and a nomination at the Schweitzer Lakedance Film Festival. Music video for a popular band "Down With Webster" has been nominated for Best Pop Video Of The Year at this year's Much Music Video Awards. Starting by shooting on film 11 years ago, today Pasha continues to upgrade his skills with ever-changing technology. Proud owner and contributor of the latest industry's technological advances, Pasha possesses skills and know-how with most recent cutting edge filmmaking tools and digital technology.